Subject: Your 2020 membership fee payment

Leiden, 14 January 2020

Dear EFI Member,

Happy new year! We want to wish you all the best as we enter 2020!

We are happy to have you as our member and in order for you to continue to make use of all membership benefits, e.g.

- free access to HLA Journal,
- reduced conference fee,
- a vote in the upcoming elections,
- apply for one of the EFI bursaries,
- apply to join the International Summer School

we would like to remind you it is now time to renew your EFI membership. The 2020 membership fee is €50,- and if you joined EFI in 2019 the second year's fee is € 20,-.

As you might have read in EFI Newsletter #90 the new EFI website has been launched shortly before Christmas and you can pay your membership fee via your personal Dashboard on the EFI website. Please choose 'Account login' in the right top corner and login with your username and password. You forgot your password? Please hit the corresponding button in order for you to reset your password.

After successful login, you accessed your personal Dashboard. Please note your payment history is shown in the 'Payments' section. Please click the 'Pay fee' button in order for you to pay your outstanding EFI membership fee. You can now pay your fee by iDeal, Credit card or bank transfer via the EFI website.

Thank you in advance for your kind attention and for renewing your EFI membership!

When on your Dashboard, we also encourage you to check your membership information and to update your details if and when needed. Please click the 'Edit settings' button to access your membership information. Remember to save your changes!

With the above we trust to have informed you sufficiently, but in case you need further assistance please feel free to contact the EFI Office.

Best regards,
Sandra van Hensbergen
